

Tuesday 21 May

ABLI's Data Privacy Workshop (1)

(All participants)

(Chatham rules apply)

Date and Time: 21 May 2019, 0900 – 1730 h

Venue: Info-Comm Media Development Authority of Singapore's (IMDA) Offices

Events Room, 5th Floor

10 Pasir Panjang Road, Blk 10 Mapletree Business City, (S)117438

0830–0900 Registration and Breakfast

0900–0910 Welcome Remarks by the Personal Data Protection Commission (PDPC)

0910-0920 Opening Remarks by the Asian Business Law Institute (ABLI)

ABLI's Data Privacy Project – State of Play; Presentation of the Draft Data Transfer Toolbox (objectives, content, methodology)

0920–0945 Session 1 - Regulatory updates

Recent data protection reforms in select jurisdictions (timelines, key issues)

0945-1100 Session 2 - General Frameworks for Data Transfer Regulations in Asian laws

Focus points: Different policy options for data transfer regulations in Asia; The role, definition, modalities of consent in Asian transfer laws; 'Informed consent' in a cross-border context?; Baseline transfer rules v. sectoral restrictions; Outsourcing regulations; Overcoming gaps in coverage in destination countries

1100-1115 Coffee Break

1115–1230 Session 3 - Comparable safeguards, 'whitelists', adequacy

Focus points: Synthetical presentation of the 'Data Transfer Toolbox' (Part 2); Adequacy v. accountability?; Adequacy in the wider ecosystem of data flow regulations in Asia; Comparing criteria and national experiences; Self-assessment: a viable option?; Strengths and weaknesses of the 'adequacy' approach

1230–1330 Lunch

1330–1445 Session 4 – Accountability Instruments for Data Transfers in Asia

Focus points: CBPRs in Asia: the experience of Japan and Singapore; how to take the system further?; Certification, Data Protection Trustmark, Privacy Seals: concept and options for implementation; Transfer contracts and Internal rules in Asian laws: experience of practitioners and privacy counsels; Strengths and weaknesses of each option

1445–1530 Session 5 – Data Localisation, Data Transfers

Focus points: Update on localisation requirements in Asia; Key factors for legal uncertainty in a comparative context; The varying approaches of industry to localisation requirements; Do derogations work?; Can data transfer instruments play a role?; Is there mileage in data classification?

1530–1545 Coffee Break

1545–1700 Session 6 - The 'Right to Data Portability' in Asia

Presentation of national developments in Singapore, Australia, Hong Kong, New Zealand and India; Update on the current work of the IWGDPT ('Berlin Group'); Sharing views with industry

1700-1715 Session 7 - 'Data Processors' in Asian data protection laws

Problem statement - Presentation and discussion of a draft 'Code for Data Processors in Asia'

Cocktail reception and panel discussion

Theme	“The search for anonymous data: balancing privacy and utility in the modern age”
Date and Time:	21 May 2019, 1830 – 2030 h
Venue:	AXA Insurance Singapore 8 Shenton Way, #24-01 AXA Tower, (S) 068811
Organisers	AXA Singapore, in partnership with AsiaDPO, ABLI and LivewithAI, in conjunction with Privacy Awareness Week 2019
Registration	On EventBrite: Click on this link

Wednesday 22 May

Data Breach Notification Workshop

Theme	‘Know Ahead to Stay Ahead – Leadership’s Engagement in Data Protection in conjunction with Privacy Awareness Week’
Organisers:	Singapore Business Federation, Law Society, Personal Data Protection Commission
Date and Time:	22 May 2019, 0900 – 1100 h
Venue:	Info-Comm Media Development Authority of Singapore’s (IMDA) Offices
Registration	Register your interest with ABLI to attend the event. Reserved seats are limited.

Panel Discussion and Lunch with BSA | The Software Alliance

Theme	“The Future of a Connected Asia-Pacific: Why Personal Data-Transfer Interoperability is Key”
Date and Time	22 May 2019, 1200- 1400 h Lunch will be provided.
Venue:	Microsoft Singapore 1 Marina Blvd, #22-01, (S)018989
Registration:	Register your interest with BSA to attend the event. Guests will need to be pre-cleared to attend. RSVP to apac-bsa@allisonpr.com

ABLI's Data Privacy workshop (2)

(ABLI's Jurisdictional Reporters and Supporting Experts only)

(Chatham rules apply)

Date and Time: 22 May 2019, 1400 – 1600 h

Venue: Asian Business Law Institute's (ABLI) Offices

Agenda: Presentation and discussion of ABLI's Interim Report on Data Privacy Laws in Asia
Discussion of the 'Draft Data Transfer Toolbox' and 'Code for Data Processors in Asia'
Next steps